THIS GREAT COUNTRY.

What Prince Albert Found to Wonder at and Admire.
[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
NEW YORK, Aug. 22.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Journal's Brussels special says the Petit Bleu publishes an account of the recent trip of Prince Albert of Saxe-Coburg to America. The Prince noticed an admirable development of practical education at Harvard University. In the course of visits to a number of colleges the Prince found everywhere efforts to render study agreeable and valuable, with practical applications. He was astonished in the technical laboratory and interested in Girard College.
The scenery is beautiful in Florida, Los Angeles, Cal., Yosemite Valley, Sacramento and Jekyll Island, where the passing of the lords of the manor is chasing savage pigs with packs of hounds. Promenades, coaching, games and sports in the splendid parks of the country seemed to the Prince to be the astonishing and charming diversions of millionaires. At St. Augustine there is extravagant luxury. Life is delightfully easy, grandmothers and little girls dancing side by side, and unequalled precociousness of boys waiting.
At San Antonio there was a curious sight, whites, blacks and redskins assisting at mass, the men remaining in their shirtsleeves.
At San Diego a tornado tore up 1500 meters of railroad track, delaying

OUR FLAG GOES UP TO STAY.

Hawaiian Islands Have Merged Their Destiny With That of the United States.

Simple but Impressive Ceremonies in Which the American Troops and Honolulu's National Guardsmen Unite.

PRESIDENT DOLE YIELDS THE SOVEREIGNTY OF THE LAND.

The Spent Candle of Native Nationality Gives Place to the Bigger, Clearer, More Certain Light of a Higher Civilization—Minister Sewall Reads the Resolution of Annexation—The Chief Executive of the Little Republic Responds—Transfers to the American Representative the Government's Title to the Public Property and Civil Dominion Over All—Hawaiian Band Plays the National Anthem and the Philadelphia's Band the "Star-Spangled Banner"—The Cross and Bars of Other Days Give Room for "Old Glory's" Glorious Rays.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 22.—The steamer Belgio this evening brought the following:
"HONOLULU, Aug. 12.—At just eight minutes to 12 o'clock today the Hawaiian flag was hauled down, and three minutes later the Stars and Stripes floated over every government building in Honolulu. The ceremony was impressive. The military force taking part consisted of the National Guard of Hawaii and United States troops from the Philadelphia and Mohican, with an artillery detachment.
"The men who lowered the Hawaiian flag were Corp. H. A. Killroy and Privates O. Winkler and A. Spiller. The American flag was raised by J. Ward, coxswain of Admiral Miller's barge; G. H. Platt, gunner's mate of the Philadelphia, and R. Winters, boat-swain's mate of the Mohican. The new flag was made at Mare Island.
"The prominent men participating were President Dole and his Cabinet, the Justices of the Hawaiian Supreme Court, Admiral Miller, Capt. C. H. Wadleigh of the Philadelphia, and S. M. Brooke of the Mohican and their staff officers and Col. Barber of the First New York Regiment.
"Minister Sewall read the resolution of annexation. President Dole responded, and yielded to the United States the sovereignty and public property of the islands. The Minister then directed Admiral Miller to perform the duty of raising the flag. The Hawaiian band played the national anthem, and a salute of twenty-one guns was fired on shore and repeated from the Philadelphia. Then the Hawaiian ensign was hauled down, and the United States flag raised, while the flagstaff's band struck up the "Star Spangled Banner." Minister Sewall read a proclamation stating that for the present President McKinley directs that the civil administration of the islands be unchanged.
"After the ceremonies the Hawaiian National Guard took the oath of allegiance to the United States. A grand ball at the Executive Building was the concluding event of the memorable day.
"Attorney-General Smith has resigned his office. Minister Sewall is now acting as special agent of the United States government. Consul-General Haywood is still in charge of the United States Consulate."

And so was heralded the great event for which everyone had been holding the breath and feeling a faint touch of qualm like sea-sickness, with which sensitive people await an event that is desired, yet dreaded. By this time it lacked but six minutes of 12, and the quivering strains of "Hawaii, Hawaii" were heard, coming up with but half the usual volume. It sounded as the voices of the Pilgrim Fathers may have when they tried to sing the songs of home in a far-off land, or as home-travelers sing "Home, Sweet Home," on distant shores. There was a sob and heartbreak in it, and before the end came an almost complete breakdown. Even the leader's baton was moving through a mist of tears, for he had written the first years before, and the memory of the times when he had played it rushed over him with irresistible force.

At the moment when the tension was so great that it could not be borne an Admiral, Admiral Miller, and to Lieut. Winterhalter, who gave the order, "Colors, roll off," and the cheery American bugles cut the air. It was a tremendous relief. Then the well-loved strains of "The Star Spangled Banner" came from the Philadelphia's band, and everyone who knew the words hoped from the depth of a fervent heart that this banner might wave over territory that should be in reality the land of the free and the home of the brave.

The American flag that was by this time climbing to its lofty position was an immense piece of bunting; what is known in navy parlance as No. 1 regulation. It was thirty feet long and eighteen feet wide, and as it went up the halyards it seemed to cover and protect the entire front of the building. During the present war we have all seen the flag when it meant much to us, but it had never meant so much, nor seemed so great and worthy a thing as when it rose to its new place in the firmament.

Almost simultaneously with the raising of the official flag, its smaller brethren were run to their places on side towers, and again we heard the salute of guns to the new sovereignty, as though the first time there was a cheer—strong from the direction of the Sharpshooters and the Citizens' Guard; weak from the places where were seated America's new citizens of alien blood.

Following the giving and taking of the oath there was a flag presentation by Gov. Dole. With a few appropriate words he handed to the color sergeant of the National Guard a Hawaiian, by the way, the flag that was carried by the marines of the Boston when they were ordered ashore in 1893. In his brief speech, Mr. Dole said that the Hawaiian flag had gone down in "honorable surrender."

Officially annexation day was closed, but in the evening a ball was given to celebrate the event—a ball that was in every way part of the events of this significant day.

STRICTLY BUSINESS.
Why England is So Decidedly Cordial to Us Americans.
[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
LONDON, Aug. 22.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] It is time that a plain statement should be made of the reasons why Americans who are still anti-English in their sympathies are in favor of American cooperation with Great Britain in the grave international crisis which confronts the world. The sudden disappearance of animosities which two years ago were hot, and the substitution of an apparent cordiality, which is all but unanimous, are not to be explained by the merely benevolent intentions of the British government, which the British United States during the war with Spain. There are other and more potent, if also more sordid, motives on both sides than platonic friendship and gratitude.

The almost maudlin raptures of France and the calculating blandishments of Russia, furnished a sufficiently conspicuous example of reward to be gained sometimes by flattering a nation's vanity. There never has been and there never will be any nonsense of this sort between the United States and Great Britain. Englishmen, as a people, are incapable of real affection for any other country or countrymen than their own, and it is no disparagement of them to say so. What has happened to Great Britain is simply this: Englishmen have discovered the immense potentialities of the United States for reshaping international destinies, and with the discovery has come the realization of the fact that only by the aid of American influence can grave disasters to the prestige and prosperity of the British empire be averted. Moreover, England is willing to pay what she considers to be a fair price for necessary cooperation.

That is the basis of the whole matter. Sentiment has nothing to do with it, and the quicker it is dismissed from consideration in connection with the question of an Anglo-American understanding, the better it will be for America. It comes, then, to a discussion of the proposed terms of the bargain, and England is apt to be perfectly frank in dealing with them. First, as to the latest phase of the Far Eastern crisis, for upon that everything hinges, the point has practically been reached when nothing short of an unqualified threat of war from Great Britain or from the United States, or both combined, will suffice to prevent the immediate dismemberment of the Chinese empire. Some believe that such a challenge from Great Britain alone would be accepted, and that the colossal struggle, involving all of Europe, would bring the century to an end in blood. Very few doubt that if England and America together interposed a veto, with war as the alternative, the ambitions of Russia and her supporters would be sufficiently checked without actually drawing the sword.

In other words, the addition of an American protest to the British against the division of China would have an influential effect toward a peaceful solution of the question. It is becoming more and more evident that Lord Salisbury's government will never, single-handed, pursue the policy of resistance to Russian aggression in Asia to the extremity of war. What, then, will England do if she fails to secure American support, and if the process of hustling her out of China continues, as it is certain to do. The answer has been foreshadowed with tolerable clearness for weeks past. She will accept the policy of the dismemberment of the Chinese empire, and will seize what she can of the spoils.

AN ENGLISH VIEW.
Hay's Recall on Account of the Far Eastern Policy.
[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]
LONDON, Aug. 22.—[By Atlantic Cable.] The Manchester Guardian says: "We understand that United States Ambassador Hay's recall to Washington to accept the post of Secretary of State is due to his special fitness to carry out a policy, in regard to which negotiations have been proceeding for some time between Washington and London, and upon which a substantial agreement has been reached, whereby the two countries will act together in the Far East, or wherever American and British interests are identical. There is no intention of hindering the nations in an alliance. Each is to be free to pursue its own destinies in its own way, but the governments will act together diplomatically where their common interests are concerned."

NO ENTANGLING ALLIANCES.
[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]
WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—It was stated in an authoritative quarter today that the choice of Mr. Hay was due solely to his general fitness for the position, and this without reference to or consideration of the Chinese question. Beyond this no official statement is made as to the policy of the United States in the Far East, but all the indications point to a continuance of the past policy of protecting and fostering our commercial interests without entering into alliances, or joint undertakings which entail semi-political considerations.

Estimates Give Victory to Henry T. Gage.

FIGURES POINT THEIR WAY.

Pardee People Strive to Keep Up a Bold Front.

Jacob Neff May Be the Nominee for Lieutenant-Governor.

Los Angeles Delegation Holds a Very Important Caucus.

UNIT RULE AND R. J. WATERS.

It's a Hot, Old Town Sure Enough. The Biggest Feature in It Is the Virility of the Southrons. Get Your Voices in Tune.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
SACRAMENTO, Aug. 22.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Oakland noise factory is in active operation tonight, and the band the boomers have hired to make music at the expense of Dr. Pardee is going about the streets playing "There'll be a hot time in the old town tonight," which is an altogether unnecessary performance as the perspiring patriots know it is not by the drip of the leak in their whiskers and by the limpness of their linen.

The Pardee contingent is keeping up a bold front, but there is a hollowiness in the cheeks that come from the quarters of the Bay District, and the yellow badges that grace the hats and throbbing bosoms of the men from Oakland, otherwise known as the Athens of the Pacific, are becoming pallid in the overpowering glow of the Gage boom, which is glowing like the coil in an incandescent light.

SIGNIFICANT FIGURES.

The Gage forces are more aggressive here, even, than they were in San Francisco. They are now claiming that he will be nominated on the first ballot beyond the shadow of a doubt. On the way up from San Francisco this afternoon a group of the Southrons' friends made up a tally-sheet showing the votes which they actually claim for him. These figures footed up to 401 with several counties left out that it is reasonably certain may be counted in his column. My own opinion is that these figures are extravagant, although I should say that Mr. Gage will start off in the balloting with upward of 300 votes. It takes 395 to nominate.

Tonight it appears as if Dr. Pardee were dropping to the rear, and there is every indication that Lou Brown will be in second place, at least at the conclusion of the first ballot. Mr. Gage's strength is, taking everything into consideration, one of the most remarkable things in the history of California politics. He started out in his campaign with a strong virile sentiment against him in his own district, but by personal effort and by brilliant strategy he has not only lined up his neighbors in the interest of his cause, but has reached out into the farther portions of the State and secured support where a month ago no one would have believed it could possibly be attained without the grinding of any machine or without any manipulation not on the right lines. He has gone on growing like a green bay tree. Mr. Gage's boom may be compared to a fire on the prairie or in the mountains, which starts from unknown cause and goes like a flash, sweeping everything before it. That he will win out easily on the second or third ballot seems to be absolutely assured, and there may be a break in the first ballot that will land the nomination for him high and dry.

NEFF FOR SECOND.

Neff will be the chairman, as was predicted some days ago in these dispatches, and the latest thing of the taps is to make the chairman of the convention's nominee for Lieutenant-Governor. That this would be worth thousands of votes to the ticket goes without saying.

The fight for Congressman in the Sixth District, is as funny as a monkey circus. All sorts of schemes are being conceived to defeat Waters, but his force is as steady as a rock. The "Yankee soldiers in a rifle pit" of the "Davis boom" has died a born-in. In fact, there never was an embryo from all appearances. One need not be surprised at this, when he considers that Mr. Davis has been but nineteen months in the State, and that he presumably came to California especially to run for Congress, besides for other reasons.

COMING OUT.

Judge McGee of Pasadena is, it is whispered, coming out as a Congressional candidate, and Gregg of San Luis Obispo is another aspirant, but where their force is to be recruited is something no man can say. Mr. McLachlan and his friends deny point blank that the Pasadena had anything whatever to do with getting Davis into this Sixth District fight, but the latter's ambition, which has been aroused, comes through some industrious leg-pullers, who it is claimed, have, to use a colloquialism, swelled Mr. Davis's head. Jimmy Copeland and Carlsale of Los Angeles are the twin major domos in the Davis campaign, and their showing is already more than ridiculous. It is idiotic. Davis is no more a factor in the contest than a blind rat in a hole. Unless all signs fail, by this time tomorrow night R. J. Waters will be the Republican nominee for Congress in the Sixth District, and his nomination will be accomplished as easy as falling out of a balloon.

The day has been barren of new candidates, although the propaganda beds are being sprinkled this evening, and there may be a new crop spring up tomorrow, as mushrooms sprang up in a single night.

The weather appears to be getting ready to do things of a warm sort. It is close and sultry tonight, and ice-cream clothing is quite the proper garb, although the town is full of statesmen wearing silk hats and the heavy toggery that goes in San Francisco. If there is not a smashing roast in soak for this convention by the weather clerk, I miss my guess. Tomorrow there will be a start made, and everybody fondly hopes that the ticket may be completed by Thursday night at the very latest. Get your voices in tune to yell for Gage.

L. E. MOSHER.

CAPITAL CITY SEETHING.

And the Enthusiasm is All of the Gage Order.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
SACRAMENTO, Aug. 22.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The capital city is seething with excitement tonight. Republican hosts have been gathering all day long, and every incoming train has brought hundreds to swell the crowds already here. Every man is an ardent partisan of some of the numerous candidates, but above all personal interests is the universal and dominating enthusiasm for Republican success.

In marked contrast with the apathy and listlessness which marked the Democratic convention last week is the eager and confident expectation with which assembled Republicans are looking forward to the campaign. It is assured that it will bring victory. The arrival of the Los Angeles delegation this morning was the occasion of a demonstration for Henry T. Gage, which effectively silenced all rumors of defections from his column.

Seven sleepers, decorated with streamers, brought the delegates, every man wearing a yellow badge, with the inscription, "Henry T. Gage for Governor." The delegation formed in line at the depot and marched to the Golden Eagle Hotel, the column headed by a silken banner bearing the name of the Southrons' candidate. Every man in the column was cheering wildly for Gage, and their enthusiasm found a ready response among the throngs that lined the sidewalks. When the Golden Eagle was reached, the Gage forces took hold by storm, and the halls and lobbies rang with cheers for California's next Governor.

ESTIMATES OF STRENGTH.

Estimates of Gage's strength on the first ballot range all the way from 300 to 450, there being required 395 to nominate. The canvass of the situation warrants the belief that one ballot will settle the contest, and that Henry T. Gage will be the Republican nominee for Governor. While San Francisco will give Gage at least 120 votes, it is possible they may not be needed, for before the roll call has been called, so far his strength will probably be so unmistakable as to sweep all before it.

It is true that Lou Brown is still making a determined fight, and his friends claim 300 votes for him on the first ballot. But Brown's strength is widely scattered, and has no such nucleus as the solid South gives to Gage. Brown has made a vigorous canvass, and has strong personal friends, but with such scattered support combinations have been impossible. Pardee expects to have a big crowd of rosters, 500 strong, to yell for him in nomination. But the Gage forces cannot be routed by the beating of tom-toms.

The Los Angeles delegation held a caucus this afternoon and unanimously elected Gen. E. P. Johnson chairman and Luther G. Brown secretary of the convention. A resolution endorsing Henry T. Gage and pledging the delegation to vote as a unit for him was adopted with cheers, and without a dissenting vote. A similar resolution pledging the solid support to the Congressional candidacy of R. J. Waters was also unanimously adopted. This was undoubtedly put the quietus upon the eleventh-hour aspirations of Frank P. Davis, whose attempt to inject himself into the Congressional race has aroused general criticism. It is said that Davis hoped to secure the postponement of the Congressional convention until after he had made his speech nominating Gage, expecting that his eloquence would win votes for himself. If such a scheme was devised, it has failed. The Congressional convention will be held at 5 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

The caucus appointed a steering committee, the chairman of the delegation, ex-officio, and one representa-

RALLY, BOYS OF THE SEVENTH!

Gen. Miller Commands that the Absentee Members of Southern California's Pet Regiment Report for Duty by Friday.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 22.—

[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Seventh California Regiment, which has waited so long and patiently to be sent to the front, will receive orders tomorrow from Brig.-Gen. Miller to embark next Saturday for Honolulu upon two of the returned transports of the First Philippine expedition, the Australia and the City of Sydney. Pursuant to Gen. Merriam's verbal order to Gen. Miller, just before Merriam left for Honolulu Saturday, the Seventh Regiment has been given the preference over other commands now here.

The capacity of the two vessels together is scarcely greater than is needed by the regiment. The City of Sydney will carry 670 men, and the Australia 700, or a total of 1370. The present strength of the Seventh is 1326 officers and men. This number will be slightly diminished by the leaving behind of the regiment's sick. Gen. Miller yesterday issued the following order to have recalled those of the Seventh who are away on leave, and to hurry the equipment of the regiment:

"Commanding Officer of the Seventh California Infantry, Sir—The division commander desires that you direct all absentee members of your regiment within reach, to report for duty by Friday, 26th inst., and that you make efforts to complete the equipment of clothing for your command by that date.

"Very respectfully,

[Signed]

"CHARLES G. WOODWARD,

"Acting Adjutant-General."

The City of Peking, which returned today from Manila, will accommodate about 1200 men, who will be selected, according to Gen. Miller's present intention, from either the Twentieth Kansas or the Fifty-first Iowa Regiment. The one best equipped will be the one to go. The Australia and City of Sydney began taking on coal today, and commissary supplies will be placed aboard with all possible expedition.

"CHARLES G. WOODWARD,

today it became clear that the struggle will be confined to Gage, Pardee and Brown, with the chances largely in favor of the first named.

There are eleven candidates up for the nomination on the first ballot, and from two to five candidates for every other place on the State ticket, except those of Controller and Surveyor-General, the nomination of which, E. P. Colgan and M. J. Wright, enjoy a clear field for renomination.

It is reported that a strong plank in favor of favoring the Philippines, and another favoring the modification of the civil-service law, will be incorporated in the platform.

The night closes on a situation unaltered since the morning. The three candidates in the lead for a nomination as Governor, Gage, Pardee and Brown, have not abated one in their outward show of confidence. Their managers, however, refuse, when approached, to give the public the reasons upon which they rely for the victory.

Wherever one turns in the densely-thronged corridors on the sidewalks or the crowded curb line in the multitude filling the streets, he hears that the die is cast for Gage and that the Los Angeles will win hands down. There are no shouters with his name on their banners, and no volunteers to wagger. It is the drift which quiet-spoken men ask you to observe, and they tell you that every wind and current is carrying Gage's triumph.

The visible signs are few. There has been no flowing out of Gage ribbons. The orange-colored badges worn by the members of the Los Angeles delegation are like little flecks of gold in a boulder of quartz. The boulders, however, may assay high when subjected to the crucial test of a conventional roll call.

To reach the noise zone it is necessary to mingle with the Pardee men. The forerunner of a sample of others, who received medical treatment near the wreckage, were only slightly injured. It is thought that not more than twelve or fifteen can be included among those seriously injured. Seven of them were taken to the Boston hospital. A list is as follows:

JAMES A. FITZPATRICK, aged 42, Chittenden, leg crushed; amputation probably necessary.

C. H. FRYE, aged 37, Revere (probably reported dead through an error). Head and spine injured, probably fatally.

DELLA VERNON, South Boston, lacerated scalp, serious internal injuries.

H. J. CROCKETT, aged 22, Somerville, multiple injuries.

MARY N. GHIMSHAW, aged 8, Somerville, multiple injuries.

R. MURRAY, East Boston, leg badly crushed.

All the other injured are being cared for at their places of residence in Sharon, Waltham and Boston.

KNOWS THE CRIMINAL.

ATTY-GEN. WHITE FATHOMS THE DUNNING POISONING CASE.

The Delaware Official Has Ordered the Arrest of One or More Women in California—Mrs. Botkin's Husband Champions Her Case.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

DOVER (Del.), Aug. 22.—Attorney-General White said this afternoon that he is almost satisfied as to who is responsible for the murder of Mrs. J. B. Deane and Mrs. J. P. Dunning, and it is his intention to order the arrest of one woman and probably two in San Francisco, he said.

White said he had received a telegram today, and said he would probably be advised of one or more arrests being made before night. Attorney-General White said he would have a talk with J. P. Dunning later in the day. One of the State detectives will probably be sent to San Francisco in a day or two. Mr. White has decided not to have the bodies of Mrs. Deane and Mrs. Dunning exhumed. He said it would not be necessary. He believes he has enough evidence to convict the guilty party.

There is a current rumor today to the effect that a Dover woman was suspected, but Mr. White said he has no such suspicion, neither has members of Pennington's family. In speaking about the arrests to be made in California, Mr. White declined to say what charge would be preferred against the woman or women. It is understood that at least two women are suspected of knowing something about the case.

Mr. White said he was pretty sure of the identity of the woman or women, and he believes he now knows the names of the suspects.

THE BOTKIN WOMAN.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

STOCKTON, Aug. 22.—Chief of Police Gall of Stockton has received no word from the San Francisco officers requesting the arrest of Mrs. W. A. Botkin, now in this city, and suspected of having a hand in the death of Mrs. J. P. Dunning. Mrs. Botkin refuses to be interviewed, and her husband says the statements alleged to have been made by her and published in the San Francisco Examiner have been garbled and exaggerated.

LEADS LACKS EVIDENCE.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 22.—Chief of Police Lees of this city is in communication with the Delaware authorities regarding the poisoning of Mrs. John P. Dunning and her sister, Mrs. R. Deane, by some person, supposedly a resident of this city. Chief Lees has been working on the case for some time, but has not been able to find any leads in his efforts to trace the guilty person because the Delaware authorities have not sent him any of the evidence in the case. He has advised the original box, which contained the candy and the paper in which it was inclosed, with the address written on it. He suggests that a photograph of the articles desired might aid him in his search.

He has made no arrests, and will not admit that he confuses the case taking suspects into custody. Mrs. Botkin, whose name has been so prominently connected with the affair, is in Stockton, and has not been arrested at a late hour this afternoon.

WANT TO SWAP.

[A. P. EARLY MORNING REPORT.]

NEW YORK, Aug. 22.—A special to the Herald from Halifax, N. S., says:

"Federated boards of trade of the eastern provinces of Canada have, through committee, requested Sir Louis Davis, Canadian Minister of Marine and Fisheries, to make an important offer to the United States commissioners who are to meet representatives of Canada in conference in Quebec on next Tuesday."

Louis Davis is to state that Canada is ready to give American fishermen the free use of inshore fisheries of this country, on the same terms as those enjoyed by Canadian fishermen, if, on the other hand, dominion merchants are guaranteed access to the markets of Cuba and Porto Rico, on equal footing as regards the customs tariff, with American merchants. This takes it for granted that the United States will make the tariff for those islands."

SHARON WRECK VICTIMS.

FIRST REPORTS OF DEAD AND WOUNDED WERE TOO LARGE.

Only Four Killed and the List of Seriously Wounded Will not Exceed Twelve or Fifteen—Number of Slightly Wounded is Very Large.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

SHARON (Mass.), Aug. 22.—In the excitement and confusion attending the clearing away of the wreckage caused by last night's collision on the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad, it was reported that seven persons were killed, four of them being given as unknown. Today it was learned definitely that the total number killed was four, as follows:

FRANKLIN M. WATERS of Somerville, a book-keeper in Boston, aged about 25.

MRS. MARY FITZPATRICK of Boston, widow, aged 70.

MRS. C. H. FRYE of Revere.

The War Department Has Issued Orders Which are Already Being Put into Effect.

HAWAII THE POST CHOSEN.

TWO TRANSPORTS BEING COALED
AND SUPPLIES ISSUED.

New York Volunteers Reach Honolulu—City of Peking Returns from Manila—Troops Leave Chickamauga.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]
SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 22.—A telegram has been received from the War Department ordering all the troops of Gen. Merritt's department remaining here to be sent to Honolulu with at least four months' subsistence and medical stores, and to be held there until further orders. This practically transfers the scene of expeditionary operations from San Francisco to the Hawaiian Islands, and gives to the troops a more pleasing prospect than the one of looking out, to which they had been looking forward.

All the companies have been ordered to make requisitions to the quartermaster's department for summer clothing, and the Australia and City of Sydney are already being coaled preparatory to the carrying out of this order.

The Seventh California will be the first of the troops to be sent to Honolulu. The men of the Twentieth Kansas who signed the petition to the Secretary of War to be among the first to be mustered out, have all been slightly punished and deprived of most of their privileges. The moral of their number has been degraded to the ranks. A similar petition in the First Washington Regiment has been consigned to the flames.

TROOPS AT HONOLULU.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]
SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 22.—Advices from the steamer Delgo from Honolulu of August 16, says that the steamer schooner Charles Nelson arrived on the 14th inst., with five companies of the New York Volunteers, under Maj. Chase and part of the Third Battalion of the Second Regiment of Volunteers from Utah. Col. Barber welcomed the New Yorkers, and they went into camp at Kapiolani park, where they will probably remain until the location of permanent barracks is decided upon. Col. Barber has received instructions to enlist up to 400 men, to be mustered into the regular service of the United States.

THE PEKING RETURNS.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]
SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 22.—The United States transport steamer City of Peking, one of the first transports to leave this city for the Philippines, arrived in this city on the return trip, late this afternoon. She left Cavite July 20. She brought with her fifteen of the enlisted men of the United States Asiatic Squadron. There had been no fighting up to the time of her departure, and she brings no news of important events in the Philippines, not already published.

BREAKING THE CAMP.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]
CHICKAMAUGA NATIONAL PARK, Aug. 22.—Judging from present indications, Camp Thomas, the largest military camp of the Spanish-American war, will soon be a thing of the past. A number of regiments have already been ordered home. Others have been ordered to Knoxville, Tenn., and Lexington, Ky., and now comes an order to Wheeler, acting chief quartermaster, to secure bids from railroads to convey all regiments remaining at the camp to their respective State capitals. The idea seems to be to get the regiments to places in which they can be mustered out close to home, the necessity for keeping the army intact being no longer in evidence. Numerous regiments are now making preparation to leave, and by the end of the week the population of the camp is expected to be reduced to one-half of what it now is. The regiments ordered to Knoxville and Lexington will be moved as rapidly as transportation can be secured, and as soon as these are gotten out the camp will remain will be started on their way.

WILL REMAIN IN COMMAND.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]
WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—Rear-Admiral Sampson will retain command of the North Atlantic fleet, notwithstanding his service on the Cuban military commission, and Rear-Admiral Schley will continue in command of the fleet on the Pacific coast. This statement was made authoritatively at the Navy Department today. The list of naval assignments posted today contains that of Admirals Sampson and Schley to the Cuban and Porto Rican commissions, respectively, but no reference is made to any change in the fleet commands.

WANTS A LIST.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]
WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—Adj.-Gen. Corbin has cabled Gen. Merritt to send a list of wounded at Manila.

BOSTON WILL HELP.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]
WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—The Olivet, hospital ship, which has just arrived at Montauk Point with 200 sick on board, has been ordered to proceed to Boston. The sick soldiers will be taken to hospitals in Boston which have volunteered to Surgeon-General Sternberg to take care of them.

FUNDS FOR THE BOYS.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]
WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—Paymaster-General Stanton has ordered three paymasters, with funds, to go at once to Manila to pay the troops there. They will sail from San Francisco in a day or two.

MILITARY PRISONER DIES.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]
ATLANTA (Ga.), Aug. 22.—Thomas J. Prince, Troop C, Sixth Cavalry; Robert M. Bailey, Troop D, Fifth Cavalry, and Frank Mellor died in the hospital at Fort McPherson today of typhoid fever. Mellor was a general prisoner, undergoing a sentence of six months, HAROLD M. SEWALL.

Former United States Minister and now Special Agent to Hawaii.

and his identity in the army had been lost.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—The President has promoted Capt. Charles D. Sigbee, U.S.N., now commanding the St. Paul, by advancing him three numbers on the list of captains in the navy, for "extraordinary heroism."

OUT OF THE ROADS.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]
WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—Orders were issued by the Navy Department, which will prevent the assembling of any large fleet at Hampton Roads. The large warships will be sent to New York and Boston, and the torpedo boats to Newport, R. I. The only ships to remain at Fortress Monroe are auxiliary cruisers and tugs. These orders were issued owing to complaints of steamboat companies that a big fleet in the harbor at Hampton Roads would interfere seriously with navigation.

HOSPITAL SHIP MISSOURI.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]
NEW YORK, Aug. 22.—Under orders from the War Department the hospital ship Missouri must sail for Santiago tonight. She will carry nine surgeons, forty hospital corps men, ten trained male nurses, two hospital stewards and eighteen stragglers of the Eighteenth Illinois (colored) Volunteers. The Missouri will bring back those sick men not included with infectious fever.

MAJ. GEORGE H. TORNEY OF THE hospital ship Relief has received instructions from the Secretary of War that the relief must sail for Ponce not later than tomorrow evening, there to load with sick and wounded, who are to be taken to Boston and placed in hospital. She carries twenty nurses and five surgeons, as well as 1000 bottles of malted milk; 5000 cans of soup, 700 bottles of whisky, 50 little slings, 100 medical glasses.

AUXILIARY NAVY.

Plans Under Which it Was Maintained.

[A. P. EARLY MORNING REPORT.]
NEW YORK, Aug. 22.—The United States auxiliary naval force, which a week ago consisted of forty-one vessels in commission, says a Washington correspondent of the Tribune, was reduced to twenty-five vessels yesterday, and by the end of next week it will have disappeared altogether until another war shall call it into service. During the period of hostilities with Spain this line of naval defenses had no popular opportunity to demonstrate its efficiency, although the work of naval officers charged with keeping a lookout for the enemy, has gone far to prove how indispensable it would have been, had the Atlantic coast been menaced by attack.

As a result of the experience gained by the combination of the auxiliary force and the coast line signal system, it will be possible, if a foreign invasion of this country is hereafter contemplated, to provide speedily for the mobilization of an effective system of defense.

When Capt. John R. Bartlett was put in command of the auxiliary naval forces on July 1, he proceeded energetically to get all the vessels promptly into commission, and to organize the force on the basis which was intended by the framers of the joint resolution which created it. The force was distributed in nine districts, six on the Atlantic coast, two on the Gulf, and one on the Pacific, and the complete organization was perfected in a single month.

Under the original plan, the assistants to the chief in the various districts were to be officers from the local naval militia, who had entered the United States service, and the vessels in each district were to be maintained by the men of the naval militia of that district, who had been mustered into the auxiliary naval forces. This plan was carried out fully in the Pacific. The whole Pacific coast of the United States comprises the ninth district, which is under the command of Lieut. Guinn, E. Guinn, U.S.N., formerly commanding the second division of the California Naval Battalion, with headquarters at San Francisco. Lieut. Guinn's command consists of the revenue cutters Corwin, Grant, Perry and Rush, and the tugs Apache and Potomac, and the ferryboats East Boston and Gov. Russell were also part of the auxiliary fleet, but were detached and turned over to the navy recently for service in Southern waters. All these have been officered and manned from the naval militia of the various States, with the exception of those that have been detached, which are commanded by officers of the regular navy.

The rapidity with which the force has been reduced since the suspension of hostilities is considered proof of its thorough discipline and excellent management, and shows how valuable the naval militia system has become in the few years of its existence. The twelve monitors which have served in the auxiliary force, have been ordered out of commission as speedily as possible at League Island, where they will be immediately prepared for permanent duty as guardships in Cuban and Porto Rico harbors. Additional awnings will be stretched over their upper decks, with side awnings for protection in stormy weather, and the crews, consisting of a full war complement of ninety regular seamen and marines, will sleep under these awnings. The monitors will be sent to New York and Boston, and the torpedo boats to Newport, R. I. The only ships to remain at Fortress Monroe are auxiliary cruisers and tugs. These orders were issued owing to complaints of steamboat companies that a big fleet in the harbor at Hampton Roads would interfere seriously with navigation.

AUXILIARY NAVY.

Plans Under Which it Was Maintained.

[A. P. EARLY MORNING REPORT.]
NEW YORK, Aug. 22.—The United States auxiliary naval force, which a week ago consisted of forty-one vessels in commission, says a Washington correspondent of the Tribune, was reduced to twenty-five vessels yesterday, and by the end of next week it will have disappeared altogether until another war shall call it into service. During the period of hostilities with Spain this line of naval defenses had no popular opportunity to demonstrate its efficiency, although the work of naval officers charged with keeping a lookout for the enemy, has gone far to prove how indispensable it would have been, had the Atlantic coast been menaced by attack.

As a result of the experience gained by the combination of the auxiliary force and the coast line signal system, it will be possible, if a foreign invasion of this country is hereafter contemplated, to provide speedily for the mobilization of an effective system of defense.

When Capt. John R. Bartlett was put in command of the auxiliary naval forces on July 1, he proceeded energetically to get all the vessels promptly into commission, and to organize the force on the basis which was intended by the framers of the joint resolution which created it. The force was distributed in nine districts, six on the Atlantic coast, two on the Gulf, and one on the Pacific, and the complete organization was perfected in a single month.

Under the original plan, the assistants to the chief in the various districts were to be officers from the local naval militia, who had entered the United States service, and the vessels in each district were to be maintained by the men of the naval militia of that district, who had been mustered into the auxiliary naval forces. This plan was carried out fully in the Pacific. The whole Pacific coast of the United States comprises the ninth district, which is under the command of Lieut. Guinn, E. Guinn, U.S.N., formerly commanding the second division of the California Naval Battalion, with headquarters at San Francisco. Lieut. Guinn's command consists of the revenue cutters Corwin, Grant, Perry and Rush, and the tugs Apache and Potomac, and the ferryboats East Boston and Gov. Russell were also part of the auxiliary fleet, but were detached and turned over to the navy recently for service in Southern waters. All these have been officered and manned from the naval militia of the various States, with the exception of those that have been detached, which are commanded by officers of the regular navy.

SAD HOME-COMING OF HAWAII THRONELSS QUEEN.

Liliuokalani Welcomed by the Con-

the Islands.

BARBARIC FEUDAL HOMAGE.

THE EX-QUEEN SAID TO BE SUFF-ERING FROM CANCER.

General Indifference to Annexation
Among the Native Population.
One View of the Political Situation in Honolulu.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.]

HONOLULU, Aug. 4.—The homecoming of a thronelss queen to have a funeral that was a fete, but there was that about the return of the deposed Liliuokalani to her lost kingdom that impressed everyone who witnessed it beyond the power of time to eliminate. Hundreds of natives greeted her at what, to natives, native Honolulu relapsed for a night into the barbarism from which it sprang and the civilization of years slipped away like a mantle. Liliuokalani had come to her own again and her people welcomed her from their hearts, with nothing of lip service. The Gaelic, on which Liliuokalani was known to have sailed, was sighted after midnight of August 1, off Koko Head. Once before the natives prepared to welcome her and she did not come, but underdressed by the disappointment, many of them thronged to the deserted dock and made ready to welcome the woman who is still a chiefness to them.

They hites who might have scoffed remained to wonder at the simple dignity and fervor of the welcome—the feudal homage of it all, and those who had thought that Liliuokalani was not loved by her people had their doubts forever put at rest.

All the surroundings of the Queen's arrival were most romantic. An island night, with a purple midnight sky, lit by stars and shaded with clouds, the full moon occasionally spilling its light over the edges of great embankments of cloud. It was 2 o'clock in the morning of August 2, before the Gaelic docked, yet every passenger was on deck, for queens do not wait in the night. It was some time before Liliuokalani appeared on the arm of Prince David, but she swept down the gangplank as regally as the queen of Hawaii again in the throne room of Iolani Palace. Not a sound greeted her. Natives and white royalists of prominence stood with bowed heads, and a host of the women were weeping quietly, but no one uttered a word until the Queen herself broke the spell by greeting them with an affectionate "Aloha," which means much from her lips. The response was quick and fervid. A chorus of alohas went up to her and a very old woman in the throng sang into the wild and barbaric chant of the olohi, in which she sang the praises and prowess of the Queen's ancestors. The Princess Kaiulani was awaiting in her carriage with its pair of white horses and there was a brisk drive to the private residence of the Queen. It agreed to pay $75,000 indemnity to Japan for sending back several hundred indigent Japanese laborers some time ago. Japan demanded damages, though Hawaii appeared to be clearly within her rights. The two countries had agreed to settle the affair by arbitration, but had not settled upon an arbitrator, when President McKinley intimated to Minister Hatch that he would like the matter disposed of before formal annexation. The indemnity was promptly voted by the Hawaiian Council of State in the interregnum of the Legislature. It is thought by some that a desire on the part of the President to learn what has been done in the promises was the cause for the delay in the coming of Admiral Miller. Meanwhile political clubs continue to form and declare themselves. A large Republican club in Hilo, the city of second size in the islands, has declared in favor of the franchise for all Hawaiians and Hawaiian-born Europeans. The most prominent club of natives has declared that since annexation is assured, good Hawaiians must now become good Americans.

Some excitement was caused last week by the distribution of 200 pardons to those who took part on the losing side of the many revolutions. Only one man refused his pardon. John Adams Cummins, a prominent Royalist and half-white, and Minister of Foreign Affairs under Kalakaua, who was the only man to pay his fine, will sue the republic for the amount, $5000. These pardons restore to full civil rights, and are a wiping-out of old scores.

The real trouble will come, however, when the question of the franchise comes up. All over the islands, except in Honolulu, the whites appear to wish to do justice to the natives. In Honolulu, the bigotry and cant of the "family compact," will make justice difficult. The question will be bitterly fought on both sides.

At noon on August 3 the Philadelphia arrived, having made a quick trip of six days and twenty hours from San Francisco. All Honolulu turned out to see her come in, but the crowd seemed to be merely curiosity seekers, and not at all enthusiastic. All the annexationists must have been in the government for, that was the only place where there was any cheering. Not a single cheer broke the quiet of the dock. Not a hat was raised nor a handkerchief waved. Many prominent royalists remained within doors, and all those who appeared wore bright orange leis to show their unwavering loyalty, while many kept when the Philadelphia sailed the Hawaiian flag for the last time. Except for the Americans, it was a melancholy assemblage. The natives formed a sorrowful background—significant as the background of American Indians in all the pictures of Puritan zeal and piety, for, like the Puritans, the American missionaries in Hawaii first fell upon their knees and then upon the aborigines. Nothing more completely demonstrated the entire lack of any popular enthusiasm for annexation in Hawaii than the utter indifference with which the Philadelphia was received, as also the Gaelic and the Alameda, when they brought the news of annexation. Nobody seems to care the turn of an eyelash, except a little knot of office-holders and island politicians.

The Philadelphia made a pretty sight as she threaded the narrow channel, the violet smoke pouring from her leaden sides as she saluted, the marines marching upon her deck, and the admiral who has had a dozen flagships in as many months, on her bridge. Presently a boat shot out, manned by blue jacks in on the deck, with an officer in the stern. The admiral was paying his respects to the American Minister and President Dole, and the formal business of annexation had been announced.

DANGER IS PAST.

FOREST FIRES ARE QUENCHED AND SMOKE DISPELLED.

After Days of Hard Fighting the Flames in the Mountain Watersheds Have Been Overcome.
Tired Workers Tell of the Battle in the Sierra Madre.

The northern skies are clear again. Of the heavy clouds of smoke, which have stretched for miles and miles over the mountains for several days, only a few faint puffs remained at sundown last night. People returning from the various camps, and the headquarters of the fighting forces, say the fire undoubtedly is under control. When the torches began to flame up on the nearer side of the mountains Sunday night, the situation looked very serious indeed, and there were many anxious watchers in the city through the night. The worst is over now, though the fight is still going on at the west end of the line. The ravaged territory is confined to about forty-five square miles.

Monday forenoon, Superintendent of Forest Reserves Newhall came down on a burro from Wilson's Peak Park. His first move was to confer with the managers of the Mt. Lowe road and see just what had been done by them in his absence in the more easterly region. The message from Newhall, he had secured and sent up to Alpine Tavern ten men to take their places. The chief effort of this squad was to prevent the fire from crossing the divide between Bear and Eaton's cañons, and by the hardest kind of fighting, by watching the embers as they fell into Eaton's Cañon, then following them up and extinguishing them, the fire was kept on the west side of Eaton's Cañon. Owing to the location of the head of this cañon, and the fact that it is filled with a very heavy growth of timber, the stopping of the flames at the divide means more than words can tell. Not only would the Mt. Lowe preserves, together with the two hotels, the observatory and all the other buildings have been in actual danger, but the watershed to the east of Pasadena would have suffered inevitable damage.

Ranger Thomas, who is in charge of the force in the West Fork of the San Gabriel Cañon, reported last evening that the fire was under control there. He had nothing more to add except that the extra ten men sent up to relieve those who had been fighting for two days and nights, had been put on guard, simply to hold in check any flames which might spring up from a smoldering ember. The chaparral is so thick in the cañons that it is not safe to leave the fire even after it is under control, for several days. A strong wind might at any moment cause another blaze. The main fire at the present time is in the Arroyo Seco, many miles north of Pasadena.

Superintendent Newhall received a letter yesterday morning from Agent Montgomery, who has charge of the men in the Arroyo section, stating that they were tired out, and asking for help. He stated that his force was so far from the base of supplies that several pack animals had to be sent on the trail between where the men were working, and the end of the wagon road in the Arroyo Seco, most of the provisions had to be carried on burros, and men had to drive the burros to and from the wagon trail.

MOREY IS RELEASED.

The Evidence Given by Russell is Considered Untrustworthy.

J. J. Morey was discharged from custody yesterday afternoon by Justice Morrison, on motion of Deputy District Attorney James, who became convinced after hearing the testimony given by Arthur G. Russell, upon whom the prosecution depended principally for a conviction, that it would be impossible to secure one.

In the morning when the case was called Mr. James presented affidavits, signed by Detective John Goodman, in which he alleged having used due diligence in his attempts to secure the attendance of R. S. Darst and D. J. Jerue, two witnesses claimed by him to be of the utmost importance to the prosecution. However, the court resisted the motion for a continuance, and was successful, in that he secured yesterday afternoon for the examination of the two men. The examination took place in the afternoon, the room was pretty well filled with friends on both sides. Russell was called and gave a pretty connected story as to how Dow, who is now in jail awaiting trial for robbing Darst, told him where the money was hid in a closet in the rear of a saloon corner of Seventh and Olive streets. Russell got the money, paid Attorney Bacon $50 and had one of the $100 bills changed, out of which he paid Morey $50.

In cross-examination by Mr. Appel, Russell said he was known as "Reuben Bill" when he lived on the Bowery in New York City. He was a photo-engraver by trade and had worked in New York, Denver, Los Angeles and Guatemala. The examination brought out the fact that before he swore to the statement on which was based the felony charge he had been promised and had received one of the $100 bills stolen from Darst. Morey was arrested on the charge that he had received $50 of the money stolen from R. S. Darst of San Diego, and was charged with "knock-out drops" last June and robbed of about $400. A. A. Dow is now in the County Jail awaiting trial for the offense.

BOULEVARD KILLED.

THE PROTESTS SUSTAINED AND PROCEEDINGS ABANDONED.

Another Plan to Secure the Drive-way Will Now Be Tried—New Sweeping Specifications.

AN ABDUCTED CHILD'S RETURN.

MADAME GUTIERREZ SUES HER LANDLORD FOR DAMAGES.

A La Cresenta Rancher Objects to a Real Estate Man's Presence. The Metallurgist's Dispute in Court.

No boulevard to Pasadena over the Mission road route will be constructed, at least, not for the present. At its regular session yesterday the City Council, after hearing all that the numerous protesters had to offer against the plans as adopted, sustained the protests and ordered abandonment of the project. It is probable that when the matter is revived, the old fight over the route will be renewed, and instead of laying out a limited assessment district, the entire city will be included.

The new street-sweeping specifications have been adopted. They provide for the sweeping of the business portion of the city by hand, provided the bid for that kind of work is low enough to be considered. The new contract will run from November 21 next, to June 30, 1901.

The hitching ordinance has been amended so as to include Hill street between First and Fifth, in the district in which hitching for a longer period than twenty minutes is prohibited.

It has been discovered that a portion of the new Stimson building, Third and Spring streets, extends nearly two feet into the street. According to the opinion of the City Attorney the Council is powerless to prevent the owner of the building the right to leave any portion of it on the street. The matter has been referred to the Board of Public Works.

The anti-poker ordinance has been referred to a special committee, consisting of Councilmen Toll, Mathews and Ashman for investigation and report.

Mrs. Jennie McNeil and her granddaughter, Vera Nelson, were returned to the city from Sacramento, where they were detained on telegraphic instructions from the Sheriff's office. The account that Mrs. McNeil is on her way to the city, however, and if she can obtain from Salt Lake City a copy of the court record awarding the custody of the child, Vera, to her father, then the grandmother may win her case, as against the claim of the girl's mother.

Mrs. Gutierrez has suffered $6000 worth of damage in her business and general reputation by being ordered for one day in the City Jail, and as that indignity was placed upon her at the instance of her husband, E. E. Crandall, she asks judgment of the amount against him in a suit which she began yesterday.

MISSION ROAD BOULEVARD PROCEEDINGS ABANDONED.

Limited Assessment Caused This Action—Anti-Gambling Ordinance Referred—Proceedings of the City Council.

Less than forty minutes were required to dispose of all of the business which the City Council had to transact at its morning session yesterday. The most important item on the agenda was the proposed plan for the boulevard, which was abandoned. The plan was abandoned because of the limited assessment caused by the anti-gambling ordinance. The proceedings of the City Council were referred to the Board of Public Works.

The first matter to be taken up at the session was the anti-gambling ordinance. The ordinance was referred to the Board of Public Works.

The second matter to be taken up at the session was the proposed plan for the boulevard. The plan was abandoned because of the limited assessment caused by the anti-gambling ordinance.

MADAME GUTIERREZ SUES HER LANDLORD FOR DAMAGES.

A La Cresenta Rancher Objects to a Real Estate Man's Presence. The Metallurgist's Dispute in Court.

No boulevard to Pasadena over the Mission road route will be constructed, at least, not for the present. At its regular session yesterday the City Council, after hearing all that the numerous protesters had to offer against the plans as adopted, sustained the protests and ordered abandonment of the project. It is probable that when the matter is revived, the old fight over the route will be renewed, and instead of laying out a limited assessment district, the entire city will be included.

The new street-sweeping specifications have been adopted. They provide for the sweeping of the business portion of the city by hand, provided the bid for that kind of work is low enough to be considered. The new contract will run from November 21 next, to June 30, 1901.

The hitching ordinance has been amended so as to include Hill street between First and Fifth, in the district in which hitching for a longer period than twenty minutes is prohibited.

It has been discovered that a portion of the new Stimson building, Third and Spring streets, extends nearly two feet into the street. According to the opinion of the City Attorney the Council is powerless to prevent the owner of the building the right to leave any portion of it on the street. The matter has been referred to the Board of Public Works.

The anti-poker ordinance has been referred to a special committee, consisting of Councilmen Toll, Mathews and Ashman for investigation and report.

Mrs. Jennie McNeil and her granddaughter, Vera Nelson, were returned to the city from Sacramento, where they were detained on telegraphic instructions from the Sheriff's office. The account that Mrs. McNeil is on her way to the city, however, and if she can obtain from Salt Lake City a copy of the court record awarding the custody of the child, Vera, to her father, then the grandmother may win her case, as against the claim of the girl's mother.

Mrs. Gutierrez has suffered $6000 worth of damage in her business and general reputation by being ordered for one day in the City Jail, and as that indignity was placed upon her at the instance of her husband, E. E. Crandall, she asks judgment of the amount against him in a suit which she began yesterday.

ALL ALONG THE LINE.

When one sees what the Democrats of Southern California got at Sacramento he wonders what they were there for.

Burglars are at work again in some of the towns of Southern California. What are shotguns and revolvers good for if they are not used to banish burglars?

"Gage's Boom Grows"—Popularity of Los Angeles Man Increases, is a "display" headline in the San Francisco Chronicle announcing a very apparent fact.

The terrible fate of the boy burned to death on West Ninth street on Sunday should serve as warning to parents to teach their children to let matches alone. Every parent who permits his child to handle matches is exposing that child to the danger of just such a death as that of little Fred Haver.

It is a source of some satisfaction to know that there is a prospect that somebody will be arrested and prosecuted for starting the destructive fire that has been raging in the Sierra Madre. If the crime can be proven, an example should be made of the culprit, or culprits, such as will put a stop to such work in the future.

The poor horse is having a hard time of it these days. Not only have electricity and the bicycle crowded him out of employment, but he has been despised and depreciated in value, but the high price of hay and grain makes it hard for him to get enough to eat. In San Diego, the president of the Humane Society reports an average of five complaints a day of cruelty to animals, and explains the frequency of the complaints by the scarcity of feed and the cheapness of horses.

C. H. Eberle, editor of the Downey Champion, announces himself as a candidate for Public Administrator on the Democratic ticket. "We have," he says, "been a resident of California since boyhood and have always taken an active part in Democratic politics. This is the first time we have submitted our name before any convention for an office. We know that we can creditably administer the affairs of the office and are willing to undertake the responsibility." Now we shall see whether the power of the press is what it is reputed to be.

YESTERDAY'S FIRES.

Hotel Catalina Scorched—Hedge Burned and an Engine Disabled.

At 6 o'clock yesterday morning a telephone alarm brought the fire department to the Catalina Hotel on South Broadway, between Fourth and Fifth streets, where a defective fire from a heater in the basement set fire to some of the wood work, causing a damage of about $50. Some of the guests were awakened, but no panic ensued.

Another telephone alarm at 10:30 o'clock yesterday morning brought the department to the rear of No. 446 South Hill street, where a coal-oil stove explosion caused a loss of about $100.

The alarm at the same hour from box No. 4 was caused by the burning of a cypress hedge in front of No. 634 Darwin avenue. The residence was owned by Mr. MacLennan, who says the damage done was small.

In responding to the alarm from the corner of Fifth and Hill streets yesterday morning, the front axle on engine No. 3 broke at the corner of Main and Requena streets. None of the crew was injured. An examination showed that the steel axle was crystallized almost throughout. The engine was repaired and put into commission again last night.

Police Court Notes.

"Duke" Wellington and M. A. Morante, who became mixed up on Saturday night at the corner of First and Los Angeles streets, were found guilty by Justice Morrison of disturbing the peace, and will be sentenced this afternoon.

Abram Dinwiddie, charged with visiting an opium joint, entered a plea of not guilty. His trial will take place this afternoon.

George Conway and William Cramer were fighting on Main street Saturday night. They were arrested by Officer Henderson, and on conviction yesterday were fined $5 and $7, respectively, by Justice Morrison.

Charged With Stealing Geese. W. A. Mason, a young man, was arrested last evening in his home on Anderson street on a warrant charging him with petty larceny. The complainant in the case is G. P. Goytino, from whom Mason rents his home. Goytino alleges that Mason stole some geese from him and then sold them. The land-owner has a property adjoining Mason's home on which he allowed a number of his geese to roam. Some of them strayed on Mason's side, and it is charged by Goytino that Mason appropriated them.

A Menace to Health.

William Stewardson, who owns two lots on Hoover street near Seventh, was complained of yesterday by the Health officer for maintaining a public nuisance. Water is allowed to stand on the lots until it becomes stagnant and a menace to the health of the neighborhood. Stewardson will be tried today by Justice Morrison.

Officer Gorman's Chase.

Charles F. Brown was arrested last evening for fast driving, but before this was accomplished he gave Officer Gorman quite a chase. Brown was driving in a buggy along North Spring street, but at a speed which the policeman thought was far too rapid for safety. He called to him to slow up, but instead of doing so, the officer says, Brown urged his horse on. The officer jumped at a passing car in the hope of catching up with the driver, but seeing that Brown was gaining distance on him he alighted and borrowed a man's bicycle at Court street. The officer ran Brown to San Pedro street near First, where he finally caught up with him and placed him under arrest.
